

Indiana's current telephone privacy law has been a wonderful benefit. Annoying calls have been drastically reduced. Please do not implement any proposal that would weaken Indiana's current law.